WEEKLY UPDATE

What a term! As I reflect on the past eight weeks, I am immensely proud of what we have achieved! It's been a busy and vibrant term, full of energy as our children settled into their routines. We've celebrated some wonderful achievements in and out of the classroom, and it has been fantastic to see so many children embracing the opportunities presented to them. I hope you all have a break and look forward to welcoming everyone back for Term 2.

LEARNING

We had a fantastic Creative Writing Day! The children absolutely loved hearing staff read 'The Day the Crayons Quit', which inspired them to produce some wonderfully imaginative and high-quality writing. A big thank you to all the parents and carers who came in to see their brilliant work. We're already looking forward to a fantastic term of learning after the half-term break!

SEND SPOTLIGHT

If your child is on the SEND register, they will now have an Individual Support Plan (ISP) in place. You should have been given a copy of this by your child's class teacher. If you have not yet been given a copy, please speak to your child's class teacher.

CHARACTER SPOTLIGHT

It has been wonderful to hear from the children about how they have been working hard towards their character targets this term. Their enthusiasm and commitment have been fantastic to see, and it's clear that they are really thinking about how to show these qualities both in and out of the classroom. We'd love to hear your thoughts too—please do add comments from both parents and children on our Class Dojo posts to celebrate their efforts. Keep an eye out for our new class targets, which will be introduced after the half-term break!
